

AND ProductInformation Server: SmartServer Interim

Central to all activities in the system

AND SystemSolution incorporates a multi-tier architecture with central Oracle database. AND SmartServer has been implemented as middleware managing the exchange of data (map and network) between the database and client applications.

AND SmartServer supports long transactions via check-in/check-out mechanism. It provides version administration for network plans and component libraries and is responsible for allocation of user rights and roles.

Further AND documents about our servers include

- GISarea